

MK Innovates - A Virtual STEM Festival

The object of the festival is to inspire students, pre and post graduates and adults into a career in STEM subjects, by showcasing exciting local businesses and courses, so that the delegates can see the types of careers open to them in their own local region.

To be held	Who is it for?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> National Science week 8-12th March 2021 Times to be announced please look for this in our newsletters 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students – Key Stages 2 - 5 Pre-graduates Postgrads - career information Adults seeking new careers

How can you get involved?	What kind of presentations can we expect?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sign up to our newsletter - https://www.mkinnovates.co.uk/#subscribe Register your business interest to present during the festival here Register your schools' interest here 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Seminars Lectures Experiments Factory Tours 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ask the expert panels Interviews Competitions Q and A sessions

Examples of Presentations Live or recorded
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Forensics of Fake Images Science of Spices Interview with British Artic Explorers Experiments with Lifting Internet of Things Innovation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Fabulous Fluids Layer Cake Mystery Tour of the a Recycling Works Science behind 5G Artificial Intelligence and the Future Cyber Security